

CANDIDATES FOR NEXT ASSEMBLY

Complete List of Party Nominations Is Presented for First Time.

REPUBLICANS ARE SCARCE

Democrats Have Clear Unopposed Majority Over All Opponents.

Nominations for the General Assembly are practically complete. An independent candidate or so may come out within the next few days, but the parties, it is believed, have acted in every instance where they intend to do so. To be placed on the official ballot for the November election, names of candidates must be filed not later than October 13.

Democrats have been nominated for all seats in the Senate save from the Sixth and Twenty-sixth Districts, where they have concluded their chances would be hopeless. They have named candidates for every house seat save those from Floyd, Grayson, Scott and the district of Tazewell and Buchanan. They even have men leading such forlorn hopes as are usually presented in Patrick and Carroll.

Few Republicans Out. Republicans are making very little play this year. They have nominated in only six senatorial districts, and if they elect in all they will have only the same number of members as in the last Senate. But they are not expected to elect all.

The minority party has but nineteen men in the field for the House of Delegates, and would be far short of a majority should it make a clean sweep of all those. However, it is expected the Republicans will support sundry independents who have come into the race.

The complete list of candidates is as follows, with a nearly full roster of their post-offices:

State Seats by Districts.

A Newspaper Advertisement Probably Saved His Life.

In December, 1905, I suffered severely with pains in my kidneys and could not sleep nights on account of backache. I became run down, fell off in weight and was at that point when I thought I would have to stop my work as saw filer at the Cedar Creek Saw Mill Co.

I had used about everything and had called in my doctor, but all to no avail. After seeing your advertisement in the newspaper I made up my mind to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as a last resort.

After three months' treatment I passed a gravel stone, and at the end of one year's treatment I was positively cured of all kidney troubles. After taking the first bottle I could sleep at night.

Now I am perfectly healthy and I honestly believe Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to be the thorough cure for kidney trouble.

I will allow you to publish this story if it may aid others who are suffering, and in closing I wish to thank you for my present good health.

Yours very truly,
A. M. WILLIAMSON,
Brewton, Ala.
